WOODBERRY PANTRY ISSUES RECALL FOR UNAPPROVED PRODUCT

Woodberry Kitchen is recalling the following canned items: Snake Oil Hot Sauce (6oz) because they were manufactured without licensed approval.

All of these products can be identified as glass jars with the product names: "Snake Oil Hot Sauce" and were manufactured from the dates September 2013 – September 2014. All lots of the products bearing the above names should be considered part of this recall.

No illnesses have been reported to date in connection with any of these products.

The recall was initiated after it was discovered that these products were being manufactured and sold without state licensed approval. The manufacture of these items was immediately halted until such time that approval is obtained for their manufacture. This recall is to the retail level.

For all recalled products, the products should be removed from sale and discontinued from any further distribution. The product should be returned to Woodberry Pantry for a full refund. If you have any questions regarding this recall, please contact Woodberry Kitchen at 410-464-8000.
