Re: Children's Dental Health Month, February 2012

The Office of Oral Health (OOH), in partnership with the University of Maryland Dental School - National Museum of Dentistry and the American Dental Association, is pleased to announce the electronic availability of materials to help your organization celebrate Children's Dental Health Month in your community.

All of the program materials may be downloaded from the Office of Oral Health's website under "In the News : Children's Dental Health Month" (<http://fha.maryland.gov/oralhealth/>):

The following items are available for download:

- Proclamation template for local use;
- Press release template for local use;
- PSA templates for local use;
- Print-ready activity worksheets available in English and Spanish from the American Dental Association (ADA);
- Print-ready activity worksheets and experiments from the National Museum of Dentistry;
- Website resource list;
- Instruction sheet for interactive media games;
- NEW! Advanced Dental Jeopardy game; Million Dollar Smile (Intermediate) and Dental Jeopardy (Beginner) and
- Office of Oral Health printed materials request form.

I hope that these materials will be useful as you plan activities for February. If you have any questions about the materials, please contact Stacy Costello, MPH, CHES, Program Coordinator, Office of Oral Health, at 410-767-3081 or scostello@dnhm.state.md.us.

Thank you.
